

6516205761.txt

I am an XM radio customer that regularly listens to local traffic and weather as well as many other stations. I pay for this service and would like to continue to get it.

The NAB should not be allowed to dictate what I listen to and how it comes into my house or car.